

Hearing Aid Battery Safety

If a hearing aid or battery is swallowed, seek urgent medical assistance.

- Never leave hearing aids or batteries within reach of small children and pets
- Never put hearing aids or batteries in your mouth
- Carefully dispose of used batteries immediately
- Share this life-saving information with carers, friends, family members and babysitters

Additional resources:

- Poison Information Centre: 13 11 26
- thebatterycontrolled.com.au
- poisoninfo.nsw.gov.au